Who is this course for?

- Intermediate Owner/Operators and Technicians that need to design complex network systems as well as troubleshoot with Wireshark

Prerequisites:

- NET-206
- 6 months of field experience on a WebCTRL system after the completion of NET-206

Objectives:

After successfully completing this course, you will be able to setup complex ALC networks, troubleshoot networks and create a secure WebCTRL site. Focus is on troubleshooting a network by reading Wireshark captures.

- BACnet Bindings
- Wireshark
- Network Microblocks
- Subnet Masks
- NAT Routers / Firewalls
- Hierarchical servers
- Security

For more information about the course outline, click the course outline button for a downloadable pdf